STATINTL

1. Mr. Meloy of the Loyalty Review Board informed me that in the case of [] (See Journal entry No. 3, second paragraph of 24 March 1952) he has been found eligible by a loyalty board panel for Region 4, and the finding has been post-audited and approved by the LRB.

2. Mr. Houston, Mr. Meloon and I met with Mr. Winslow, of the Civil Service Commission, to discuss the Performance Rating Act of 1950. After considering all the facts surrounding and the special security problems raised with CIA by the Act, Mr. Winslow recommended that we seek exemption from the statute. He recommended this particularly because the future composition of the Commission might negate any regulations which the present Commission might issue, giving us virtual exemption by approving an outline plan.

STATINTL

3. [] discussed with Mr. Warner and me the possibility of passage of legislation removing a deadline and certain territorial restrictions from the DP Act. Cong. Walter and Mr. Besterman, of the House Judiciary Committee, had discussed this matter with [] and have proposed the necessary amendments []
